DAY 14: (BLD) STANLEY

We have a sensational day planned, starting with a stop at the historic township of Stanley. Perched atop a promontory, overlooking town, sits the Highfield Historic site. The house is a stunning example of colonial architecture built for the chief agent of the Van Diemens Land Company, Edward Curr. Embark on a self-guided tour and be treated to dramatic views of the rugged coastline and Bass Strait beyond from the large French windows of the homestead. Taking a drive around town, we enjoy morning break and look at The Nut, the imposing landmass remains of an ancient volcanic plug. We'll sit down for a homely lunch at the Seaview Inn before leaving town. After a stop at the lookout, we continue through to Table Cape. The area is an extinct volcano vent with cliffs dropping away to the Bass Strait. Take a short stroll along the walking track, making way for spectacular views. Completing our day we return to Burnie.

Breakfast and dinner at hotel | lunch at Stanley Seaview Inn

DAY 15: (B) SPIRIT OF TASMANIA TO MELBOURNE

We spend the morning at Emu Valley Rhododendron Garden. We wander the commons immersing ourselves in this internationally recognised garden, classified as a plant museum! Continuing via Penguin to Devonport we visit the Don River Railway Museum. All aboard as we track along the historic Melrose line taking in the views of the township of Don and areas of historic value. Having purchased lunch, we head to the Australian Axeman's Hall of Fame, a national museum showcasing Australia's wood-chopping sporting champions and visit The House of Anvers Chocolate Factory. Early evening, we bid farewell Tasmania and board the "Spirit of Tasmania" for our overnight sailing back to Melbourne.
