

Buladelah & Seal Rocks

with Port Bus to Sugarloaf Point Lighthouse

Wednesday 18th September 2024

Tour Summary:

Sugarloaf Point Lighthouse stands on a dramatic headland East of Seal Rocks village. Completed in 1875, it is the first lighthouse designed by colonial architect James Barnet and one of the only two towers in Australia with an external stairway. It was originally built to guide ships along the rocky coastline, after several incidents, including the shipwrecking of the SS Catterthun and the Rainbow despite the coast being illuminated by the lighthouse, 20 wrecks have occurred since the lighthouse was built.
